The Family Welfare Centre (FWC), Group Centre, CRPF, Pune has added another feather to its cap by winning the prestigious Best Family Welfare Centre Trophy among all CRPF establishments across the country. This remarkable achievement marks the third consecutive year that FWC, GC Pune has secured this coveted honour.

The award was adjudged on the basis of stringent evaluation criteria covering a wide spectrum of welfare initiatives undertaken for CRPF families, including children, women, youth and adult family members. The comprehensive welfare activities, skill development programmes, educational initiatives, healthcare services and community welfare efforts carried out by FWC, GC Pune earned widespread appreciation and recognition.

The trophy was presented by Shri G. P. Singh, IPS, Director General, CRPF to Smt. Anuja Nimbalkar, RCWA Head, Group Centre, CRPF Pune, and Shri Vaibhav Nimbalkar, IPS, Deputy Inspector General, Group Centre, CRPF Pune during the 31st CWA Raising Day Celebration held at Shaurya, CRPF Training Institute, New Delhi on 24 June 2026.

On the occasion, Smt. Anamika Singh, President, Central Welfare Association (CWA), CRPF, along with senior officers and dignitaries, was also present.

Adding to the pride of Group Centre, CRPF Pune, Smt. Ujjawala Bhausahab Devarkar was awarded the Second Prize for Best FWC Worker, selected from among Family Welfare Centres across the country, in recognition of her outstanding contribution towards family welfare activities.

The event was telecast live and was witnessed by officers, personnel and family members at Group Centre, CRPF Pune. The achievement generated immense pride and enthusiasm among the CRPF fraternity, who celebrated this significant milestone with great joy.

The consecutive success of FWC, GC Pune reflects the unwavering commitment, visionary leadership and dedicated efforts of all stakeholders towards the welfare and empowerment of CRPF families.
