

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah to inaugurate the new vegetable sub-yard during the Amrit Mahotsav of APMC at Dahegam, Gujarat, on 13 July

Shri Amit Shah to plant sapling under the 'Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam' campaign and release the Amrit Mahotsav commemorative publication

प्रविष्टि तिथि: 12 JUL 2026 4:08PM by PIB Delhi

Under the vision of Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's "Sahkar Se Samridhi" and the leadership of Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah, the cooperative sector in the country is continuously advancing towards ensuring farmers' prosperity, modernising agricultural marketing and strengthening the rural economy. As part of this endeavour, Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah will inaugurate the new vegetable sub-yard during the Amrit Mahotsav of the Agricultural Produce Market Committee—APMC—at Dahegam in Gandhinagar district of Gujarat on 13 July 2026. Gujarat Chief Minister Shri Bhupendrabhai Patel, Chairman of Dahegam APMC Shri Sumeru Amin, cooperative representatives, APMC members and several other dignitaries will also be present on the occasion.

During the programme, Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah will plant sapling under the 'Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam' campaign and inaugurate the new vegetable sub-yard developed by the APMC.

Shri Amit Shah will also release a commemorative publication prepared to mark the Amrit Mahotsav of the APMC. During the programme, he will interact with the members of the Dahegam APMC Board.

AK

(रिलीज़ आईडी: 2283868) आगंतुक पटल : 616

इस विज्ञप्ति को इन भाषाओं में पढ़ें: Urdu , हिन्दी , Gujarati , Tamil , Kannada