The Ministry of New and Renewable Energy (MNRE) organised a Voluntary Blood Donation Camp at Atal Akshay Urja Bhawan, New Delhi, today, reaffirming its commitment to social responsibility and community welfare.

The camp received an encouraging response from officers and staff of the Ministry. A total of 109 officers and staff members voluntarily participated in the blood donation drive, contributing to the success of the event.

The blood donation camp was inaugurated by the Secretary, Ministry of New and Renewable Energy, Shri Santosh Kumar Sarangi, who lauded the enthusiastic participation of donors. He emphasized that voluntary blood donation is a noble act capable of saving countless lives. Appreciating the spirit of service displayed by the participants, he encouraged everyone to continue supporting such humanitarian initiatives.

A certificate of appreciation was presented to all blood donors in recognition of their selfless contribution.

The Ministry expresses its sincere gratitude to all donors, the organising team, the supporting medical staff for their valuable contribution in making the event a success. The Ministry remains committed to promoting voluntary blood donation and other initiatives that contribute to the health and well-being of society.

"Every Blood Donor is a Hero – Your Donation Can Save Lives."
