Goa, 11 August 2026

Youngsters from Goa now have an opportunity to experience the culture, traditions and way of life of Mizoram as the National Institute of Technology (NIT) Goa has invited youth across the State to participate in the Yuva Sangam Phase VII exchange programme.

NIT Goa, the nodal institution for Yuva Sangam under the Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat (EBSB) initiative of the Ministry of Education, will facilitate the exchange with the Central University of Mizoram.

The programme is open to eligible youth in the 18–30 age groups. The initiative will give participants an opportunity to visit educational institutions, industries, heritage sites, local communities and cultural landmarks in Mizoram, while representing Goa.

Yuva Sangam aims to bring young people from different parts of the country closer by promoting cultural exchange, academic interaction and community engagement. It also seeks to strengthen the spirit of national integration and mutual understanding among youth.

The registration process is open from August 4 to August 18, 2026. Interested students and youth can register through the official Yuva Sangam portal at <https://ebsb.aicte-india.org/>.

Interested students and institutions requiring further information may contact the Dr Shivnarayan Patidar, Nodal Officer, Yuva Sangam Cell, NIT Goa and Phone: 8329138521

NIT Goa has encouraged enthusiastic and motivated youngsters from across Goa to make the most of the opportunity to discover the rich cultural heritage of Mizoram and strengthen the spirit of Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat.
