The three-day Multimedia Exhibition (ICOP) organised by the Central Bureau of Communication (CBC), Field Office, Nagpur, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting, was inaugurated today at the Bus Stand, Bhandara. The exhibition, open until August 15, features multimedia displays, photographs, and citizen outreach activities showcasing 12 years of Government achievements, the VB-GRAMG initiative, and the Har Ghar Tiranga campaign.

Inaugurating the exhibition, Bhandara District Collector Shri Sawan Kumar, IAS, said that the last 12 years have been marked by relentless efforts to serve every section of society through various welfare schemes. He said the administrative machinery remains fully committed to ensuring that the benefits of these schemes reach the last mile, enabling inclusive and equitable development.

Welcoming the gathering, Field Publicity Officer, CBC Field Office Nagpur, Shri Saurabh Khekde, briefed the audience on the objectives of the Integrated Communication and Outreach Programme and appealed to citizens to visit the three-day exhibition to learn about various Government initiatives and welfare schemes. Deputy Collector Dr. Prashant Padghan and other district officials attended the inaugural programme.

A vibrant cultural presentation by the PRT troupe of CBC captivated the audience with performances highlighting 12 Years of Government Achievements, VB-GRAMG, and the Har Ghar Tiranga campaign.

The vote of thanks was proposed by Publicity Assistant Shri Shubham Gudadhe.

The exhibition also features stalls by the district administration showcasing VB-GRAMG, Self-Help Groups, and initiatives of the Health Department. The exhibition remains open to the public from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM till August 15.
