The three-day Multimedia Exhibition organised by the Central Bureau of Communication (CBC), Field Office, Nagpur, under its Integrated Communication and Outreach Programme, concluded today at Bhandara Bus Stand. The exhibition highlighted 12 years of the Government's achievements, along with the VB-G RAM G and Har Ghar Tiranga (HGT) initiatives, and provided visitors with information on various government schemes, programmes and welfare initiatives.

On the concluding day, a special programme was organised to mark 150 years of Vande Mataram, the National Song of India. The CBC PRT Troupe led the collective singing of Vande Mataram, with officials, students and visitors joining in, creating an atmosphere of patriotism at the exhibition venue.

Visitors appreciated the exhibition as an informative initiative, stating that it helped them learn about various schemes and programmes of the Government of India.

The Depot Manager, Bhandara Bus Stand, and representatives of the UMED SHGs, Ayushman Aarogya and VB-G RAM G Gramin stalls were felicitated for their cooperation and support in making the exhibition successful.

The three-day exhibition concluded with appreciation from visitors, reinforcing the importance of bringing information on government initiatives closer to the people.
