Nagpur, 17 August 2026

In a stirring display of patriotism and musical excellence, the Air Force Band of Headquarters Maintenance Command, Indian Air Force, delivered a captivating performance at the Kavivarya Suresh Bhat Auditorium, Nagpur, as part of the celebrations marking the 80th Independence Day. The performance drew a large audience and offered a vibrant tribute to the nation's sovereignty and spirit.

The band presented a diverse repertoire, bringing together traditional military music and contemporary patriotic melodies. The precision, synchronisation and discipline of the musicians reflected the dedication of the Indian Air Force personnel and kept the audience engaged throughout the performance.

Among the highlights were renditions of Maa Tujhe Salam, Jai Ho, Bharat Humko and Lehra Do. The programme concluded with the National Anthem, with the entire gathering standing in solemn pride, bringing a poignant close to the evening.

During the event, Air Marshal Yalla Umesh, VSM, PhD, Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Maintenance Command, felicitated the special guest for the evening, Padma Shri Dr Vilas Dangre.

Families of martyrs from the uniformed services, civil dignitaries, school children and residents of Nagpur attended the programme, reflecting the strong bond between the armed forces and the community.

The performance formed part of the wider Independence Day celebrations organised by the Indian Air Force to foster community engagement and commemorate the historic significance of the day.
