

Minister of State Smt. Savitri Thakur Celebrates 10 Years of UPI, Says Phone Has Become the Wallet of Every Indian

Posted On: 25 AUG 2026 10:00AM by PIB Delhi

Minister of State for Women and Child Development, Smt. Savitri Thakur celebrated the completion of 10 years of the Unified Payments Interface (UPI).

In a post on 'X' the Union Minister of State said that there was a time when carrying cash was a must, while today, phone has become the wallet. She said that from chai stalls to college canteens, and from villages to big businesses, UPI has made payments remarkably simple – a few taps, a few seconds and zero hassle.

She said that this ease and speed of digital payments reflects the India that is being built today.

There was a time when carrying cash was a must. Today, your phone is your wallet. 📱

From chai stalls to college canteens, villages to big businesses, UPI has made payments ridiculously simple. Scan. Tap. Pay. Done.... pic.twitter.com/cqVbydWhlw

— Savitri Thakur (@savitrii4bjp) August 25, 2026

SS

(Release ID: 2303075) Visitor Counter : 202

Read this release in: Bengali , Urdu , हिन्दी , Gujarati , Kannada