Describing the title 'Sankalp Se Siddhi Ka Modi Yug' as carrying a powerful and inspiring message, Shri C. P. Radhakrishnan said that resolve is not merely a wish but a firm determination backed by dedication, hard work and discipline. He said the book traces Bharat's journey over the past twelve years, covering administrative achievements as well as an ideological renaissance, and presents this journey in the context of the vision of Viksit Bharat @ 2047.

The Vice President highlighted the book's effort to connect contemporary governance with the ideas and ideals of great national thinkers including Swami Vivekananda, Rabindranath Tagore, Keshav Baliram Hedgewar, Veer Savarkar and Atal Bihari Vajpayee. He noted that the author aptly describes Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi as 'Setu Purush' - a bridge between dreams and reality, capturing the link between the sankalp of these thinkers and its realisation in contemporary India.

Recalling the major developments under Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi, Shri C. P. Radhakrishnan said the book brings together the spirit of Rashtra Pratham (Nation First), Integral Humanism and Antyodaya. Shri C. P. Radhakrishnan also highlighted national integrity, social and economic justice, women-led development, self-reliant Bharat and transparent governance. He said the work presents various governance initiatives as an effort to translate enduring national ideas into action and encourages readers to reflect on India's journey and look towards the future with confidence and optimism.

Union Minister of State for Law and Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Shri Arjun Ram Meghwal, Rajya Sabha MP and author Shri Ghanshyam Tiwari, Rajya Sabha MP Shri Lahar Singh Siroya, and Shri Pawan Kumar of Prabhat Prakashan were present on the occasion.
