Remembering Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya, the Vice-President said that he was a prominent thinker and social reformer. He recalled Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya's philosophy of Integral Humanism, which sought to place the individual, society and nation within a harmonious framework rooted in Indian thought and traditions. He said Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya Ji always placed the nation and service to the nation above himself.

Paid respectful tribute to Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya Ji at Uprashtrapati Bhawan today on his birth anniversary. Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya Ji was a prominent thinker and social reformer who dedicated his life to the service of the nation. He strongly advocated Integral Humanism, seeking to place the individual, society and nation within a harmonious framework rooted in Indian thought and traditions. He always placed the nation and service to the nation above himself. On his birth anniversary, I remember his life of simplicity, dedication and selfless public service.
