

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah attends 73rd birthday celebrations of Mata Amritanandamayi Ji in Kollam, Keralam, as Chief Guest

Even an insensitive person, upon visiting this place, is filled with a sense of gratitude for the service done by Amma

Amma has made wiping the tears of the suffering her spiritual practice and dharma for five decades; that is why her birthday, too, should be celebrated through acts of service

Amma has bestowed her blessings upon Prime Minister Modi resolve for a drug-free India; with her blessings, the entire nation will become drug-free, and we will certainly achieve this goal

Born in an impoverished village in Kollam, Amma dispelled deprivation, sorrow, and despair from the lives of millions and paved the way for liberation for countless beings

Amma's life has three parts – ‘Bhava’, ‘Karma’ and ‘Karuna’ and her affection, which runs even deeper than that of a mother, stirs the soul

Amma's affection made millions of people realize that they are not alone in their sorrow—that Amma is with them

At the time of the 2001 Gujarat earthquake, Amma built 1,200 houses and established an entire village, which is known today as 'Amma's Village'

The revered Amma transformed her spirit of service into an institutionalized global movement; for her, the 'Seva Diwas' never ends—it continues 365 days a year

If one examines Amma's life closely, it can be divided into three parts: 'Bhava', 'Karma', and 'Karuna'

Very few people dedicate their entire lives to selfless service, and Amma has spent her entire life in selfless service

Be it the Gujarat earthquake, the tsunami, the Uttarakhand disaster, the Wayanad landslide, or the challenges posed by COVID—Amma and her followers have set an exemplary standard of service in every instance

Amma has conveyed the message of Hindutva and service on various platforms, such as the United Nations Millennium World Peace Summit and the Parliament of the World's Religions

Posted On: 26 SEP 2026 8:16PM by PIB Delhi

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah attended the 73rd birthday celebrations of Mata Amritanandamayi Ji in Kollam, Keralam, today as the Chief Guest.

In his address, Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah stated that being in Amma's presence allows one to understand the true meaning of being human—transcending all worldly responsibilities. He said that even an insensitive person, upon visiting this place, is filled with a sense of gratitude for the service done by Amma. We are celebrating Amma's birthday—observed as 'Vishwa Seva Dinam' with all our hearts. The celebrations of one who has made wiping the tears of the suffering her sadhana (spiritual practice) and dharma (duty) for five decades should indeed be in the form of service.

Shri Amit Shah said that while systems sustain society, it is compassion—personified by Amma—that binds it together. It is a luminary like Amma who imparts the wisdom and empathy to understand the sorrows of others to millions of people, not just in India but across the globe. Amma's embrace has instilled a profound realization in millions worldwide that they are not alone in their suffering; rather, Amma stands with them.

Union Home Minister said that he had the privilege of meeting Amma on September 27, 2015, April 3, 2016, and June 4, 2023. He said that receiving Amma's blessings on 'Vishwa Seva Dinam' is a significant achievement in his life. He first witnessed Amma's compassion during the devastating earthquake in Gujarat in 2001, when she established an entire village by constructing 1,200 beautiful homes. She developed the settlement by providing essential amenities such as a town hall, educational facilities, and a hospital for healthcare services. Today, the village is known as 'Amma's Village'.

Shri Amit Shah said that for Amma, 'Seva Dinam' never ends, as her service continues throughout the year—all 365 days. Amma was born on September 27, 1953, into an impoverished family in the village of Parayakadavu in Kollam district. No one knew then that this child would become the instrument to dispel deprivation, sorrow, and despair from the lives of millions, and pave the way for the liberation of countless beings.

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation said that if one closely examines Amma's life, it can be divided into three facets: Bhav (devotion), Karma (action), and Karuna (compassion). An innate compassion is the defining charm of Amma's personality. Anyone who has received the blessing of Amma's embrace knows that it stirs the soul with an affection even deeper than that of a mother. While everyone engages in selfless service at some point in their lives, very few dedicate their entire existence to it; Amma has spent her whole life in selfless service. Although many possess a spirit of service, few are able to institutionalize that spirit; the revered Amma not only institutionalized her service-oriented nature but also transformed it into a global movement.

Shri Amit Shah said that there are currently 86 Amrita Vidyalyayas across the country. Whether it was the Gujarat earthquake, the tsunami, the Uttarakhand disaster, the Wayanad landslide, or the challenges posed by COVID-19, Amma and her followers have set an exemplary standard of service during every crisis. Amma has accomplished significant work—ranging from planting over a million trees and fostering initiatives in health, education, and livelihoods to making 101 villages completely self-reliant. Shri Shah said that Amma has conveyed the message of Hindutva and service on various global platforms, such as the United Nations Millennium World Peace Summit and the Vishwa Dharma Sansad.

Union Home Minister said that when India held the G-20 presidency, Amma presided over Civil-20. Amma has also extended her blessings to Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's 'Drug-Free India' campaign; with this blessing, the entire nation will become free from drugs, and we will certainly achieve this goal. Embracing the scriptural mantra of "Sarvajan Hitay, Sarvajan Sukhay," Amma has dedicated her entire life to following that very path.

RK/RR/PR/PS

(Release ID: 2315379) Visitor Counter : 520

Read this release in: Urdu , हिन्दी , Assamese , Gujarati , Malayalam