Nagpur, 5 October 2026

The South Central Zone Cultural Centre (SCZCC), Nagpur, Ministry of Culture, Government of India, will organise the popular morning classical music concert series 'Brahmanad' at its premises on October 11, 2026, at 6:30 AM. Renowned Hindustani classical vocalist Vidushi Nandini Narendra Bedekar will give a special performance. The programme is being organised again following requests from music lovers in Nagpur.

Vidushi Nandini Narendra Bedekar is a senior disciple of the renowned vocalist and Gaan Saraswati Kishori Amonkar. She trained under her guru for nearly 35 years, imbibing the musical tradition of the Jaipur-Atrauli Gharana as well as the values of the guru-shishya tradition. She has performed at several prestigious music festivals in India and abroad and is also engaged in training students in Hindustani classical music.

The 'Brahmanad' series aims to provide music lovers an opportunity to experience classical music in the serene morning atmosphere. The programme will be open to all and free of charge and will be organised on the second Sunday of every month at the SCZCC premises.

Director, SCZCC, Nagpur, Smt. Aastha Karlekar has invited music enthusiasts, students and connoisseurs to attend the programme and enjoy the morning presentation of Hindustani classical music.
