Mahanadi Coalfields Limited (MCL) has joined the nation in observing Special campaign 6 and is undertaking significant initiatives to promote responsible e-waste management across its Headquarters and operational areas. Special campaign 6 will be observed till 31st October 2026 focusing on systematic waste collection, environmental awareness and promotion of cleanliness across all MCL establishments.

As part of the drive, e-waste collection kiosks are set up across MCL areas to facilitate the collection and responsible disposal of discarded electronic items through authorised recycling channels. Employees at the Headquarters and operational areas are enthusiastically participating in the campaign, contributing to cleanliness initiatives and promoting environmentally responsible practices.

Awareness activities are also being conducted to sensitise employees and nearby communities about the harmful effects of improper e-waste disposal, including soil and water contamination and associated risks to human health and the environment.

In the first week of implementation phase of the campaign, MCL cleaned 73 sites out of the 240 identified sites, cleaning an area of 3,06,663 sqft against the target area of 10,00,000 sqft. The campaign also targets the disposal of 600 metric tonnes of scrap, while 350 HEMM batteries have been disposed of generating revenue through scrap disposal.

Through Special Campaign 6, MCL is reinforcing its commitment to workplace cleanliness, environmental protection and responsible e-waste management supporting the national objective of a cleaner, more sustainable and resource-efficient future.
