

Building a Life of Equality and Dignity

The Journey of Maharashtra's Aniket Adhik Sapkal and Meenakshi Hanumant Patole

Posted On: 17 OCT 2026 4:17PM by PIB Delhi

For Mr. Aniket Adhik Sapkal and Mrs. Meenakshi Hanumant Patole, their inter-caste marriage represented a commitment to the values of equality, fraternity and social harmony. This was a step towards building a society free from caste-based discrimination.

After their marriage, the couple encountered financial and social challenges as they began establishing their new family life. Meeting everyday household expenses, arranging essential necessities and planning for a secure future required financial stability and support.

Support through the Inter-Caste Marriage Incentive Scheme

At this crucial stage, the Government of Maharashtra's Inter-Caste Marriage Incentive Scheme, implemented through the Social Welfare Department, provided the couple with valuable financial assistance. The support helped them purchase essential household items, manage daily needs and lay the foundation for a more stable and self-reliant future.

The assistance strengthened the couple's confidence and encouraged them to move forward with greater security and optimism. It enabled them to focus on building their life together while reinforcing their belief in the importance of equality and mutual respect.

Promoting Social Harmony and Inclusion

The experience of Mr. Aniket Adhik Sapkal and Mrs. Meenakshi Hanumant Patole highlights the role that targeted government assistance can play in supporting couples who choose inter-caste marriage. By extending financial support, the scheme seeks to encourage social integration and contribute to reducing caste-based barriers in society.
