As part of the ‘Special Campaign 6’, the Legislative Department, Ministry of Law and Justice, organised a Medical Health Check-up Camp on 27th October, 2026, on the 4th Floor, Kartavya Bhawan-II, New Delhi, under the guidance of Dr. Rajiv Mani, Secretary, Legislative Department, with the objective of promoting health awareness.

Shri T.S. Muralidharan, JS&LC, attended the Medical Health Check-up Camp along with other senior officers and staff members of the Department. The camp was conducted by INDIA-AIDS (NGO), which facilitated the participation of doctors and accompanying staff from Rajiv Gandhi Cancer Institute and Research Centre. The doctors and accompanying staff provided medical consultations and guidance to the participants.

The Health Check-up Camp aimed to raise awareness about preventive healthcare, the importance of regular health check-ups, and the adoption of healthy lifestyle practices. The initiative also encouraged officers and staff members to remain conscious of their health and seek timely medical advice, thereby contributing to employee welfare and promoting a healthy working environment.

Shri T.S. Muralidharan, JS&LC, emphasised the importance of health awareness and preventive healthcare among officers and staff members. He also expressed his appreciation and gratitude to the doctors and their team for their valuable contribution, professional services, and efforts in making the camp a success.

The initiative, undertaken as part of 'Special Campaign 6', reflected the Department’s commitment to employee welfare and to fostering a healthy and positive working environment.
