Nagpur, 29 October 2026

The National Academy of Direct Taxes (NADT), Nagpur, inaugurated its cultural and literary festival 'Anubhuti 2026' on October 28, marking its return after a gap of six years. Based on the theme 'Navrasa', the four-day festival celebrates India's rich cultural diversity through artistic performances, creative workshops and regional traditions.

The festival was inaugurated in the presence of the Director General, NADT, and senior officers. Day 1 featured captivating performances based on Navrasa, along with Kathak performances.

Creative workshops on Warli painting, doodling and mocktail-making provided Officer Trainees with opportunities to explore their creativity and artistic expression.

The 79th Batch of Indian Revenue Service (Income Tax) Officer Trainees presented vibrant cultural performances representing the West Zone, showcasing the region's diverse traditions. The performances were complemented by authentic regional cuisine.

The evening concluded with a soulful Manganiyar folk music performance. Commissioner of Police, Nagpur, Shri Vishwas Nagre Patil, attended the programme as the Guest of Honour.

The first day marked the beginning of four days of cultural and literary celebrations, bringing together artistic expression, regional traditions and India’s cultural diversity.
