Mumbai, 29 October 2026

Aarambh–2026, the induction course for newly recruited Inspectors of Income Tax, commenced today at the National Academy of Direct Taxes, Regional Campus (NADT-RC), Mumbai.

The course was inaugurated by Shri Anurag Srivastava, Director General of Income Tax (Investigation), Kochi. In his address, he urged the newly recruited Inspectors to begin their careers with dedication, integrity and a strong sense of responsibility. He stressed the importance of a sound understanding of departmental functions, high ethical standards and an abiding commitment to public service, and called upon the trainees to make full use of the training to meet the evolving demands of the Income Tax Department.

Shri Navneet Manohar, Principal Additional Director General, NADT-RC, Mumbai, congratulated the participants on joining the Department. He encouraged them to participate actively in the training, build a strong professional foundation and cultivate a spirit of continuous learning. He highlighted integrity, discipline, empathy, technological adaptability and commitment to excellence as essential qualities of a public servant.

Spread over 60 training days and concluding on 22 January 2027, the programme will provide comprehensive learning across domain, functional and behavioural competencies. Aligned with the vision of Mission Karmayogi, it aims to develop newly recruited inspectors who embody the seven hallmarks of a “PRUDENT Karmayogi” and contribute to a responsive, transparent and taxpayer-centric tax administration.
