Facilities Available at the Camps

The facilitation camps will provide the following services to pensioners:

- Training and assistance in submitting Digital Life Certificates.
- Guidance on using the Jeevan Pramaan Face Authentication application.
- Acceptance of KYP forms and Digital Life Certificates.
- Distribution of Pensioners' Identity Cards and acceptance of applications for new identity cards.
- Submission of grievances and resolution of queries.

Pensioners visiting the camps are requested to carry one recent passport-size photograph and copies of their Aadhaar Card, PAN Card and bank or post office passbook.

Pensioners who have already submitted their Digital Life Certificate for the current year are not required to visit the camp again for this purpose.

All eligible pensioners are encouraged to visit the nearest facilitation camp at their convenience and avail themselves of the services being provided. The initiative reflects the Department of Telecommunications' commitment to ensuring accessible and hassle-free services for its pensioners.

For further information, pensioners may contact the Office of the Principal Controller of Communication Accounts, Mumbai.
