Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah will participate in a Cooperative Function at the Dorjee Khandu State Convention Centre in Itanagar, the capital of Arunachal Pradesh, on Sunday, November 22, 2026, and launch various development schemes of the State. In line with Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's vision of 'Sahkar Se Samriddhi' and under the leadership of Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah, the event will mark an important step towards strengthening the cooperative sector and making it more empowered, self-reliant and inclusive. Several significant initiatives related to strengthening cooperative institutions, expanding rural livelihoods, women's empowerment, financial inclusion and the overall development of the State will be undertaken during the programme. The event will also be attended by Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh Shri Pema Khandu, Union Minister of Parliamentary Affairs and Minority Affairs Shri Kiren Rijiju, Deputy Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh Shri Chowna Mein, Agriculture Minister of Arunachal Pradesh Shri Gabriel Denwang Wangsu and other dignitaries.

Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah will launch several important development schemes of Arunachal Pradesh. These include 'Mission Shikshit Arunachal – Phase II', with an outlay of ₹1,500 crore; the 'Chief Minister's Comprehensive State Power Development Programme', with an outlay of ₹2,000 crore; and the 'Chief Minister's Comprehensive State Rural Road Development Programme', with an outlay of ₹2,000 crore. In addition, 199 projects worth ₹110.95 crore under the Vibrant Villages Programme will be launched across 11 border districts of the State. Shri Amit Shah will also launch 'Mission SURAKSHA'. These initiatives aim to strengthen education, power and road infrastructure, promote the development of border areas and improve public welfare facilities across the State.

Several important initiatives will also be undertaken to strengthen infrastructure and market access in the cooperative sector. Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah will remotely inaugurate a foodgrain storage warehouse constructed at Raga LAMPS under the Foodgrain Storage Scheme. This will help strengthen storage facilities at the local level and expand the role of cooperative institutions. Shri Amit Shah will also launch an e-commerce webpage for products of the Arunachal Pradesh State Rural Livelihoods Mission (ArSRLM). This initiative is expected to provide wider market access to rural products through digital platforms and promote the economic activities of women Self-Help Groups.

During the programme, Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah will unveil the 'Arunachal Pradesh Cooperative Vision 2047'. The vision document will mark an important initiative towards the long-term development of the cooperative movement in the State. Shri Amit Shah will also felicitate cooperative societies that have demonstrated outstanding performance in various sectors. Namsai Dairy Cooperative Society will receive the 'Cooperation Award'; Lower Subansiri Fish Farmers Cooperative Society will be recognised as the Best Fisheries Cooperative Society; Kemli LAMPS will be recognised as the Best Handloom, Textile and Weavers Cooperative Society; and Jang LAMPS will be recognised as the Best PACS/LAMPS.

With the objective of expanding the financial capacity and activities of cooperative institutions, financial assistance and other facilities will be extended to various cooperative societies during the event. The National Cooperative Development Corporation (NCDC) will provide a loan sanction certificate to Lagun Multipurpose Cooperative Society Limited. The Bharatiya Beej Sahakari Samiti Limited (BBSSL) will distribute vegetable seed mini-kits. In addition, NABARD will provide a Micro-ATM to Poma Jute Dairy and Livestock Cooperative Society, while the Arunachal Pradesh State Cooperative Apex Bank Limited will provide a loan sanction certificate to Wakro LAMPS. A registration certificate will also be handed over to Khamyer Ane Multipurpose Cooperative Society Limited, formed by a Cluster Level Federation (CLF) of women Self-Help Groups. These initiatives are expected to enhance the financial access, institutional capacity and economic activities of cooperative institutions.

At the beginning of the programme, Union Home Minister and Minister of Cooperation Shri Amit Shah will flag off a Mobile Medical Van and inaugurate the SARAS Mela. He will visit various stalls set up at the Mela and interact with members of women Self-Help Groups and cooperative societies. The Mela will provide an important platform to showcase local products, traditional crafts, women-led entrepreneurship and the activities of cooperative institutions.

The Cooperative Function in Arunachal Pradesh will provide an important opportunity to strengthen the rural economy through cooperation, promote the better utilisation of local resources, encourage women-led enterprises and connect cooperative institutions with modern financial and digital facilities. The launch of development projects related to education, power, roads and border areas will further contribute to accelerating the inclusive and balanced development of the State.
