Mumbai : 25 November 2026

NSG Mumbai is organising a solemn memorial and pledge ceremony under the theme "#NEVEREVER" at the Gateway of India, paying tribute to the martyrs, honouring survivors and remembering all victims of the 26/11 Mumbai terror attacks. The ceremony will reaffirm the nation's collective resolve to ensure that such a tragedy is never repeated.

Multiple memorial zones will feature photographs and names of the heroes and those who made the supreme sacrifice, complemented by floral tributes and candles. A unique "Living Memorial", created with wax candles, will be introduced and preserved for future observances. Further reinforcing the spirit of remembrance, 11 colleges and 26 schools across Mumbai will undertake pledge-taking activities under the "#NEVEREVER" theme, fostering a commitment among youth towards peace, vigilance and national security. The event will be attended by family of martyrs, survivors, dignitaries, celebraties & citizens.

A pledge booth and message-writing corner will provide citizens an opportunity to pay their respects and express solidarity with the martyrs, survivors and their families. The programme will also feature the felicitation of survivors and martyrs' families, along with curated audio-visual presentations. As night falls, the Gateway of India will be illuminated in the colours of the national tricolour, bearing the word "#NEVEREVER" as a powerful symbol of Mumbai's resilience and the nation's unwavering courage and resolve.
