EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Chapter 3A of Part 2 of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Act 2022 (“the 2022 Act”) (c. 32) relates to victim third party material requests. Under section 44A(4), authorised persons and their equivalents in the service police (as defined respectively in sections 44E and 44F(2) of the 2022 Act) may only request counselling information where they reasonably believe that the information has substantial probative value to a reasonable line of enquiry.

Regulation 2 of these Regulations describes the counselling services which are covered by section 44A(4).

The description also operates for the purpose of section 44D(2) of the 2022 Act (by virtue of section 44D(3) of that Act), which requires the Secretary of State to publish a code of practice for authorised persons with specific content relating to counselling information requests, and for the purpose of section 30 of the Victim and Prisoners Act 2024 (c. 21) (by virtue of section 30(4) of that Act) which requires the Secretary of State to publish a report about the operation in the relevant review period of Chapter 3A of Part 2 of the 2022 Act in relation to counselling information requests.
