EDUCATION, ENGLAND

The Diocese of Salisbury (Educational Endowments) (Redlynch Church of England Primary School) Order 2025

Made - - - -

6th March 2025

Coming into force - -

7th March 2025

It has been shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State for Education (“the Secretary of State”) that the endowment of the educational foundation known as Redlynch Church of England Primary School in the County of Wiltshire, is or has been held in connection with the provision of religious education in accordance with the tenets of the Church of England at a voluntary school, the premises of which have ceased to be used for the purposes of such a school.

The endowment is comprised in a Conveyance 28th December 1839 and made between (1) Matthias Thomas Hodding and (2) The Reverend Liscombe Clarke; the Reverend Robert Speckott Barter and George Matcham.

The assets representing the endowment consist of (a) £72,870.34 being the net proceeds of sale of the teacher’s house comprised in the deed of the foundation and held by the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Finance in a deposit account; (b) the sum of £62,558 being the net proceeds of sale of the majority of the remaining school site and buildings and held by the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Finance in a deposit account; (c) any overage payments received pursuant to a transfer dated 30 June 2016 and made between (1) the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Education and (2) the Lover Community Trust; (d) the two strips of land registered under title numbers WT315932 and WT284998 being part of the former school site; and (e) any income derived from those assets before the coming into force of this Order.

Application for an order making new provision as to the use of the endowment has been made to the Secretary of State by the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Education, which body appears to the Secretary of State to be the appropriate authority of the Church of England for the purpose.

Notice of the proposed Order and of the right of persons interested to make representations on it has been given in the manner required by section 555(2) and (3) of the Education Act 1996(a).

No representations have been made on the proposed Order.

Accordingly, the Secretary of State makes this Order in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 554 and 556 of the Education Act 1996(a).

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Diocese of Salisbury (Educational Endowments) (Redlynch Church of England Primary School) Order 2025 and comes into force on the day after the day on which it is made (“the operative date”).

Interpretation

2. In this Order—

“the deed” means the deed of the foundation being a Conveyance 28th December 1839 and made between (1) Matthias Thomas Hodding and (2) The Reverend Liscombe Clarke; the Reverend Robert Speckott Barter and George Matcham;

“the Diocesan Board” means the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Education;

“the endowment” means the endowment comprised in the deed;

“the foundation” means the educational foundation known as Redlynch Church of England Primary School;

“trust assets” means:

- (a) £72,870.34 being the net proceeds of sale of the teacher’s house comprised in the deed of the foundation and held by the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Finance in a deposit account;
- (b) £62,558 being the net proceeds of sale of the majority of the remaining school site and buildings comprised in the deed of the foundation and held by the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Finance in a deposit account;
- (c) any overage payments received pursuant to a transfer dated 30 June 2016 and made between (1) the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Education and (2) the Lover Community Trust;
- (d) the two strips of land registered under title numbers WT315932 and WT284998 representing the endowment of the foundation;

together with any income derived from those assets (whether before or after the operative date).

Division of foundation and trust assets

3.—(1) The trust assets must be divided into two separate trust funds, namely

- (a) the Redlynch Church of England Primary School Fund (“the School Fund”) comprising eleven-fourteenths of the trust assets; and
- (b) the Redlynch Church of England Primary School Religious Education Fund (“the Religious Education Fund”) comprising three-fourteenths of the trust assets.

(2) The apportionment of the trust assets required by virtue of this article must be made

- (a) in the case of the two strips of land registered under title numbers WT315932 and WT284998 after sale and/or realisation thereof

(a) Sections 554 and 556 were amended by Schedule 30 to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (c. 31).

- (b) in every case after payment of any expenses of administration in accordance with article 5(2).

Trustee and vesting

4.—(1) The Diocesan Board is appointed to be the trustee of

- (a) the foundation;
- (b) the trust assets; and
- (c) the School Fund established by article 3(1)(a).

(2) The Incumbent and Churchwardens of the parish of St Mary, Redlynch are hereby appointed to be the trustees of the Religious Education Fund established by article 3 (1)(b).

(3) The funds belonging to or held in trust for the foundation immediately before the operative date must be transferred to the Diocesan Board and all acts necessary for that purpose must be done by persons holding such funds.

Administration of foundation

5.—(1) The Diocesan Board is authorised to sell the two strips of land registered under title numbers WT315932 and WT284998 and must, until sale, let or otherwise manage such property according to the general law applicable to the management of property held on trust for chargeable purposes.

(2) After payment of any expenses of administration, the Diocesan Board must account for that proportion of the capital and income of the trust assets of the foundation which represents the Religious Education Fund, to the trustee of that fund.

(3) The trustee of the Religious Education Fund must apply the income, and may apply the capital of that fund, for educational purposes related to the Parish of St Mary, Redlynch in connection with the provision of religious education in accordance with the tenets of the Church of England by means of a Sunday School or otherwise.

(4) The Diocesan Board must hold the School Fund on trust on the terms set out in the Schedule (being the uniform statutory trusts set out in Schedule 36 to the Education Act 1996(a)).

Consolidation

6. The School Fund must be consolidated with the fund known as the Diocese of Salisbury Consolidated Educational Endowments(b) and that consolidated fund must be known as the Diocese of Salisbury Consolidated Educational Endowments.

Signed by the authority of the Secretary of State

6th March 2025

Louise Whitesman
Deputy Director
Department for Education

(a) Schedule 36 was amended by paragraph 10 of Schedule 9 to the Education Act 2005 (c. 18).

(b) The trustee of the Diocese of Salisbury Consolidated Educational Endowments is the Diocesan Board. The assets of the Diocese of Salisbury Consolidated Educational Endowments fund are held under the uniform statutory trusts.

(a) 2005 c. 18.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order appoints the Salisbury Diocesan Board of Education as trustee of the foundation known as Redlynch Church of England Primary School and makes new provision as to the use of that foundation. It creates a separate foundation for the purpose of providing religious education in accordance with the doctrines of the Church of England within the Parish of St Mary, Redlynch. The Order provides for the Religious Education Fund to be held on trust by the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the parish of St Mary, Redlynch.

The Order includes provision that requires the School Fund to be consolidated with the fund known as the Diocese of Salisbury Consolidated Educational Endowments and held on the uniform statutory trusts as set out in the Schedule to the Order (being the uniform statutory trusts set out in Schedule 36 to the Education Act 1996) for the benefit of Church of England voluntary schools, foundation schools, academy schools, alternative provision academies, city technology colleges and city colleges for the technology of the arts in the Diocese of Salisbury.
