EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Ministry of Defence Police (Conduct, Performance and Appeals Tribunals) Regulations 2020 (S.I. 2020/1087) (“the 2020 Regulations”), primarily to align with changes made by the Police (Conduct, Performance and Complaints and Misconduct) (Amendment) Regulations 2025 (S.I. 2025/558) to the disciplinary procedures that apply to members and former members of the territorial police forces in England and Wales and appeals from those procedures.

Part 2 amends the 2020 Regulations.

Chapter 1 amends regulation 2 of the 2020 Regulations to insert a definition of “MDP staff member” used elsewhere in the Regulations.

Chapter 2 amends the Conduct Regulations set out in Schedule 1 to the 2020 Regulations. Regulation 5 makes various changes to the interpretative provisions, including to clarify that a conviction for an indictable-only offence will always amount to gross misconduct, and makes a minor change to the rules relating to the delegation of functions. Regulation 8 makes changes to enable written notices or documents to be sent by e-mail rather than by post. It also creates rules for deemed dates of service. Regulations 10 and 14 amend regulations 41 and 62 of the Conduct Regulations to require that disciplinary action is imposed in cases where misconduct or gross misconduct is found. They also provide that, where gross misconduct is found, the outcome must be dismissal without notice unless exceptional circumstances apply. Regulation 11 amends regulation 49 of the Conduct Regulations to allow a relevant authority to refer a case to an accelerated misconduct hearing even if it has not received a statement of the investigator’s belief that the special conditions are satisfied. Various errors within the Conduct Regulations are also corrected by regulations 5 to 10 and 12 to 14.

Chapter 3 amends Schedule 2 to the 2020 Regulations (modifications to the Conduct Regulations in their application to former officers), mainly in consequence of amendments to the Conduct Regulations. Regulation 20 inserts a new Part 3A into the Conduct Regulations as modified, and introduces a presumption that a former police officer should be referred to an accelerated misconduct hearing rather than a misconduct hearing unless the officer opts for a misconduct hearing or the relevant authority determines that a misconduct hearing is necessary. Various errors are corrected by regulations 16 to 18, 22 to 24, 28, 31 and 33. The Ministry of Defence has produced a version of the Conduct Regulations modified in respect of former officers which can be obtained from the Professional Standards Department of the Ministry of Defence Police by e-mailing MDP-PSD-GMB@mod.gov.uk or writing to them at Palmer Pavilion, RAF Wyton, Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire, PE28 2EA or online at:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/ministry-of-defence-police-conduct-performance-and-appeals-tribunals-regulations-2020>.

Chapter 4 amends the Performance Regulations set out in Schedule 4 to the 2020 Regulations. Regulation 36 makes various changes to the interpretative provisions, including to introduce a definition of “appeal manager” and to remove the requirement that a “senior manager” be the supervisor of the second line manager of the officer concerned. Regulation 38 amends regulation 6 of the Performance Regulations and provides that written notices or documents may be sent by e-mail rather than by post. It also creates rules for deemed dates of service. Regulations 47 and 69 amend regulations 16 and 45 of the Performance Regulations respectively to provide that the officer concerned must demonstrate sufficient improvement for a default period of three months where they are issued with a written improvement notice. Regulation 49 amends regulation 18 of the Performance Regulations to provide that an appeal against the finding and outcome of a first stage meeting must be heard by an appeal manager rather than by the second line manager of the officer concerned. Regulation 52 omits Part 4 of the Performance Regulations and thereby reduces the previous three-stage system to a two-stage process. Regulation 58 amends regulation 33 of the Performance Regulations to provide that a panel chair may be a member of the Ministry of Defence Police or another police force who acts as a senior officer. Other changes are consequential on those set out above.

Chapter 5 amends the Appeals Tribunals Regulations. These amendments are in consequence of the changes to the Performance Regulations.

Part 3 makes transitional provision. It provides that the amendments made by Chapters 2 and 3 of Part 2 do not have effect in relation to a matter that pre-dates the coming into force of these Regulations, or post-dates it but relates to a matter that is already being handled in accordance with the Conduct Regulations unless the Director General of the Independent Office for Police Conduct has made a direction or determination under external procedures or where the officer concerned was only given notice of their referral to misconduct proceedings or an accelerated misconduct hearing after the date these Regulations come into force. It also provides that the amendments made by Chapters 4 and 5 of Part 2 do not have effect where the matter was already being dealt with under the Performance Regulations or relate to a matter that was being dealt with under those Regulations before these Regulations come into force.

Regulation 78 also contains provision to ensure that the change to the rules on giving notices or documents to an appellant under the Appeals Tribunals Regulations does not apply where notice of the appeal was given by an appellant before these Regulations come into force.

A full impact assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
