EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made under section 32(2)(a) and (4) of the Football Governance Act 2025 (“the Act”). Section 32 requires the Independent Football Regulator (“IFR”) to make a determination as to whether a person is suitable to be an owner or officer of a club within a specified determination period.

Regulation 2(1) specifies the initial determination period for the purposes of section 32(2)(a) of the Act. The initial determination period runs for 90 days, beginning on the day after the IFR receives an application that is made in accordance with section 28 or section 29 of the Act. An application is made in accordance with those sections where it complies with the statutory requirements as to information, form and manner, including the information requirements specified in rules made by the IFR under those sections.

Regulation 2(2) specifies the maximum period by which the initial determination period can be extended under section 32(3) of the Act, for the purposes of section 32(4). The effect is that the total determination period may not exceed 150 days, beginning on the same day referred to in paragraph 2.

Under section 32(5) of the Act, if the IFR does not make a determination within the determination period, the IFR is treated as having determined that the person is not suitable to be an owner or officer (as applicable) of a club.
