EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Employment Rights Act 1996 (Application of Section 80B to Adoptions from Overseas) Regulations 2003 (S.I. 2003/920) (“the Principal Regulations”) to reflect the amendments made to section 80B of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (c. 18) (“the 1996 Act”) by section 1 of the Paternity Leave (Bereavement) Act 2024 (c. 17) (“the 2024 Act”) and sections 16(2) and 17(2) of the Employment Rights Act 2025 (c. 36) (“the 2025 Act”).

Section 80B of the 1996 Act places a duty on the Secretary of State to make regulations entitling an employee who satisfies specified conditions to be absent from work on paternity leave for the purpose of caring for a child placed for adoption under the law of any part of the United Kingdom or supporting that child’s adopter. The Principal Regulations provide that section 80B of the 1996 Act has effect, with modifications, in relation to cases which involve the adoption of a child who enters Great Britain from outside the United Kingdom in connection with or for the purposes of adoption which does not involve the placement of the child for adoption under the law of any part of the United Kingdom (“overseas adoption cases”).

Subsection (6C) of section 80B of the 1996 Act, inserted by the 2024 Act and subsequently amended by the 2025 Act, places a duty on the Secretary of State to make regulations entitling an employee who satisfies specified conditions to be absent from work on paternity leave where the person with whom a child is placed or expected to be placed for adoption dies. That subsection also provides that such regulations may entitle an employee to be absent from work on paternity leave where the child also dies or is, having been placed for adoption, returned. These Regulations make corresponding amendments to the Principal Regulations in relation to overseas adoption cases.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary sector or community bodies is foreseen.
