Transitional provision in relation to employees serving waiting days before 6th April 2026

3.—(1) This regulation applies to an employee in respect of whom a qualifying period arises.

(2) A “qualifying period” arises where the employee has a period comprising at least two consecutive days that includes—

- (a) not more than two days of incapacity for work in relation to a contract of service, which fall on or before 5th April 2026 and are waiting days, and
- (b) at least one day of incapacity for work in relation to a contract of service which—
 - (i) falls on or after 6th April 2026,
 - (ii) is a post-6th April qualifying day, and
 - (iii) would have been a waiting day had sections 10 or 12 of the 2025 Act (as the case may be) not come into force.

(3) The employee is eligible for statutory sick pay in respect of any post-6th April qualifying day in the qualifying period which falls on or after 6th April 2026, subject to Part 11 of the 1992 (GB) Act or Part 11 of the 1992 (NI) Act (as the case may be).

(4) Regulation 19 of the 1982 Regulations (GB) or regulation 19 of the 1982 Regulations (NI) (as the case may be) has effect in respect of the qualifying period as if, for the definition of the critical date in paragraph (2) of that regulation, there was substituted—

““the critical date” means the first day of the qualifying period”.

(5) In this regulation “waiting day” means a day for which statutory sick pay is not payable in accordance with—

- (a) section 155(1) of the 1992 (GB) Act as it has effect immediately before 6th April 2026, in relation to an employee in Great Britain, or

4.—(1) This regulation applies to an employee—

- (a) whose period of entitlement begins on or before 5th April 2026 and has not terminated before 6th April 2026,
- (b) for whom, in respect of at least one qualifying day which falls on or before 5th April 2026 and within that period of entitlement, statutory sick pay is payable in accordance with section 151(1) of the 1992 (GB) Act or 147(1) of the 1992 (NI) Act (as the case may be) as it is in force immediately before 6th April 2026, and
- (c) whose normal weekly earnings are—
 - (i) not less than £125, and
 - (ii) not more than £154.05.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) and Part 11 of the 1992 (GB) Act or Part 11 of the 1992 (NI) Act (as the case may be), the employee is eligible for statutory sick pay in respect of any part of their period of entitlement which falls on or after 6th April 2026 (the “protection period”).

(3) Where—

- (c) section 152(3) of the 1992 (GB) Act or section 148(3) of the 1992 (NI) Act (as the case may be) applies to the periods described in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), the employee’s protection period does not include that subsequent post-6th April period of incapacity for work.

(4) Section 157 of the 1992 (GB) Act, or section 153 of the 1992 (NI) Act (as the case may be) has effect in respect of the protection period as if, for paragraph (1), there were substituted—

“(1) Statutory sick pay shall be payable by an employer at the weekly rate of £123.25.”.

- (c) for whom a period of entitlement does not arise because their normal weekly earnings were less than the lower earnings limit on the first day of their period of incapacity for work, and
- (d) for whom, except the lower earnings limit, no circumstances within Schedule 11 to the 1992 (GB) Act, as it has effect immediately before 6th April 2026, prevented a period of entitlement from arising on the first day of their period of incapacity for work.

(2) For the purposes of Part 11 of the 1992 (GB) Act, a post-6th April period of entitlement is deemed to arise and that post-6th April period of entitlement is deemed to commence on the employee’s first day of incapacity for work in relation to a contract of service which falls on or after 6th April 2026.

(3) Paragraph (2) does not apply where, on the day that the employee’s post-6th April period of entitlement would be deemed to have commenced, any of the circumstances within Schedule 11 to the 1992 (GB) Act arise.

(4) Regulation 19 of the 1982 Regulations (GB) has effect in respect of the post-6th April period of entitlement as if, for the definition of the critical date in paragraph (2) of that regulation, there was substituted—

““the critical date” means the first day of the employee’s period of incapacity for work”.

(5) This regulation does not apply to an employee whose period of incapacity for work—

- (a) began on or before 21st September 2025, and
- (b) for whom the period beginning with 21st September 2025 and ending with 5th April 2026 is comprised only of consecutive days of incapacity for work in relation to a contract of service, all of which form part of that period of incapacity for work.

- (c) for whom a period of entitlement does not arise because their normal weekly earnings were less than the lower earnings limit on the first day of their period of incapacity for work, and
- (d) for whom, except the lower earnings limit, no other circumstances within Schedule 11 to the 1992 (NI) Act, as it has effect immediately before 6th April 2026, prevented a period of entitlement from arising on the first day of their period of incapacity for work.

(2) For the purposes of Part 11 of the 1992 (NI) Act, a post-6th April period of entitlement is deemed to arise and that post-6th April period of entitlement is deemed to commence on the employee’s first day of incapacity for work in relation to a contract of service which falls on or after 6th April 2026.

(3) Paragraph (2) does not apply where, on the day that the employee’s post-6th April period of entitlement would be deemed to have commenced, any of the circumstances within Schedule 11 to the 1992 (NI) Act arise.

(4) Regulation 19 of the 1982 Regulations (NI) has effect as if, for the definition of the critical date in paragraph (2) of that regulation, there was substituted—

““the critical date” means the first day of the employee’s period of incapacity for work”.

(5) This regulation does not apply to an employee whose period of incapacity for work—

- (a) began on or before 21st September 2025, and
- (b) for whom the period beginning with 21st September 2025 and ending with 5th April 2026 is comprised only of consecutive days of incapacity for work in relation to a contract of service, all of which form part of that period of incapacity for work.
