EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (“the 1975 Order”).

The 1975 Order disapplies specified provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (“the 1974 Act”) which would otherwise prevent a person from having to disclose a spent conviction or caution and protect that person from being prejudiced by that conviction or caution or any failure to disclose it.

Article 2(2) of this Order amends the 1975 Order to disapply section 4(2) of, and paragraph 3(3) of Schedule 2, to the 1974 Act to any question asked by a person to assess the suitability of a self-employed individual or personal employee they want to employ or engage in any work which is regulated activity relating to children and vulnerable adults. Article 2(3) of this Order adds to the 1975 Order any employment which is concerned with the delivery of Electronic Monitoring and Field Services by contractors, and registered health care professionals employed or engaged by; the Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, or their contractors or sub-contractors.

These amendments mean that a person’s spent convictions and cautions may be taken into account when assessing a person’s suitability to engage in such work.

Article 2(5) of this Order adds Pedicab Driver Licences to the list of excepted licences so information about spent cautions and convictions can be taken into account when considering a person’s suitability to hold such a licence.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
