⁽³⁾ 2018 c. 12.

⁽⁴⁾ See section 37(1) of the European Union (Future Relationship) Act 2020 for the definition of devolved authority.

(3) The National Authority may disclose personal data to any person where necessary for the purposes of enabling or facilitating it to monitor and supervise the management of the Erasmus+ Programme in the United Kingdom.

(4) The National Agency may disclose personal data to any person where necessary for the purposes of enabling or facilitating it to perform its function of managing the implementation of the Erasmus+ Programme in the United Kingdom, or to perform that person's functions in respect of the Erasmus+ Programme.

(5) The Independent Audit Body may disclose personal data to any person where necessary for the purposes of enabling or facilitating the production and issuing of an audit opinion in respect of the National Agency's yearly management declaration as part of the Erasmus+ Programme, including provision of information in support of that audit opinion.

Data processing for the purposes of statistical analysis, research and support

4.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) a relevant person may undertake such processing of personal data as is necessary for the purposes of enabling or facilitating—

- (a) the Secretary of State to—
 - (i) undertake statistical analysis and research—
 - (aa) in relation to the impact of the United Kingdom's participation in the Erasmus+ Programme,
 - (bb) to support and monitor continuous improvement in the performance of the National Agency's functions;
 - (ii) provide support to the National Agency in exercising its specified functions;
- (b) the Scottish Ministers to—
 - (i) undertake statistical analysis and research in relation to—
 - (aa) the impact of the United Kingdom's participation in the Erasmus+ Programme in or as regards Scotland,
 - (bb) monitoring the performance of the National Agency in or as regards Scotland;
 - (ii) provide support to the National Agency in exercising its specified functions in relation to a person in Scotland;
- (c) the Welsh Ministers to—
 - (i) undertake statistical analysis and research in relation to—
 - (aa) the impact of the United Kingdom's participation in the Erasmus+ Programme in or as regards Wales,
 - (bb) monitoring the performance of the National Agency in or as regards Wales;
 - (ii) provide support to the National Agency in exercising its specified functions in relation to a person in Wales;
- (d) a Northern Ireland Department to—
 - (i) undertake statistical analysis and research in relation to—
 - (aa) the impact of the United Kingdom's participation in the Erasmus+ Programme in or as regards Northern Ireland,
 - (bb) monitoring the performance of the National Agency in or as regards Northern Ireland;
 - (ii) provide support to the National Agency in exercising its specified functions in relation to a person in Northern Ireland.

(2) A relevant person may disclose personal data to another relevant person where necessary for the purposes of enabling or facilitating the performance of a function of the Secretary of State or a devolved authority under paragraph (1).

Disclosure of personal data

5. Nothing in this instrument affects any power to disclose personal data that exists apart from this instrument.

Sunset and saving

6.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), these Regulations cease to have effect on 31st December 2027.

(2) These Regulations continue to have effect after 31st December 2027 so far as is necessary for the purposes of—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations enable the processing of personal data as part of the Erasmus+ Programme.

Regulation 3 enables the processing of personal data by an Erasmus+ Programme Body, being the National Authority, National Agency and Independent Audit Body for the purposes of enabling or facilitating the performance of the functions of those bodies under the Erasmus+ Programme, and enables the sharing of personal data to persons undertaking functions in respect of the Erasmus+ Programme for certain purposes.

Regulation 4 enables the processing of personal data by a relevant person, being the Secretary of State, a devolved authority (the Scottish Ministers, the Welsh Ministers or a Northern Ireland Department), the National Agency or the Independent Audit Body for the purposes of certain statistical analysis and research or the provision of support to the National Agency in relation to specified functions of the National Agency, and enables a relevant person to disclose personal data to another relevant person for those purposes.

Regulation 5 provides that nothing in this instrument affects any power to disclose personal data that exists apart from this instrument.

Regulation 6 provides that these Regulations cease to have effect on 31st December 2027, except for a saving provision to enable the processing of personal data to continue, where necessary, in respect of activities commenced prior to 31st December 2027.
