EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Employee Study and Training (Procedural Requirements) Regulations 2010 (S.I. 2010/155) (“the 2010 Regulations”).

Regulation 2 amends the 2010 Regulations to extend the time limit, from three to six months, for presenting a complaint to an Employment Tribunal in relation to an employer’s failure, or threat to fail, to comply with an employee’s right to be accompanied at a meeting to discuss study or training.

Regulation 3 provides that the extension to the time limit only applies where the failure, or threat to fail, to comply occurs on or after 1st October 2026.

A full impact assessment, which outlines the effect that extending Employment Tribunal time limits will have on the costs to businesses, stakeholders, and households, is available as part of the impact assessments for the Employment Rights Act 2025 and related secondary legislation on www.gov.uk/guidance/employment-rights-bill-impact-assessments and from the Department for Business and Trade, Old Admiralty Building, Admiralty Place, London, SW1A 2DY.
