EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Armed Forces (Review of Court Martial Sentence) (Amendment and Supplementary Provision) Regulations 2026 (“the Regulations”) amend statutory instruments made under the Armed Forces Act 2006 (c. 52) which provide for the review of unduly lenient sentences passed by the Court Martial.

The Regulations amend the Armed Forces (Review of Court Martial Sentence) Order 2009 (S.I. 2009/1168) (“the 2009 Order”), which specifies offences for which sentences may be referred by the Attorney General to the Court Martial Appeal Court for consideration as to whether they are unduly lenient. The offences listed in the Schedule to the 2009 Order are intended to correspond with those set out in Schedule 1 to the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (Review of Sentencing) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/1116), which applies to the civilian justice system. Regulation 2 amends the Schedule to the 2009 Order by adding further offences that are included in S.I. 2006/1116, bringing closer alignment between the civilian and service justice systems in respect of the offences eligible for sentence review.

The Regulations also amend the Armed Forces (Review of Court Martial Sentence) (Supplementary Provision) Regulations 2009 (S.I. 2009/1169). Regulation 3 makes provision for cases where a request for review is received by the Attorney General during the final 14 days of the standard 28-day period for making an application to the Court Martial Appeal Court. In those circumstances, the period for applying for leave is 14 days from the date the request is received.

A full impact statement has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
