- (b) might prejudice the investigation or prosecution of a criminal offence or any civil proceedings, or
- (c) is resulting in a significant risk of harm to any person (including P).

(4) Where the Secretary of State is required to cease publishing the information under paragraph (3), they must do so before the end of the period of five working days beginning with the day on which they makes the determination under that paragraph.

(6) Where the Secretary of State decides that continuing to publish the information would not have the effects described in paragraph (2) in a particular case, they are not required to review that decision if there has been no material change in the circumstances which led to that decision.

(7) Where the Secretary of State removes a person from the MDP barred list, they must cease to publish the information in relation to P.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Schedule 25 to the Crime and Policing Act 2026 (c. 20) (special police forces: barred persons lists and advisory lists) requires the Secretary of State to maintain a “barred persons list” (paragraph 1) and an “advisory list” (paragraph 9) in relation to the Ministry of Defence Police (“MDP”). These Regulations make supplemental provision relating to the operation of those lists under that Schedule.

Part 2 (MDP barred list) specifies the information that must be included in the MDP barred list (regulation 3), makes provision for additional circumstances in which a person must be removed from the list (regulations 4 to 7) and makes provision about the information that must be published about persons in the list (regulations 8 and 9).

Part 3 (MDP advisory list) specifies the information that must be included in the MDP advisory list (regulation 10) and makes provision for additional circumstances in which a person must be removed from the list (regulations 11 to 13).

Part 4 makes consequential amendments to the Ministry of Defence Police (Conduct, Performance and Appeals Tribunals) Regulations 2020 (S.I. 2020/1087) to reflect the introduction of the MDP barred list.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for these Regulations as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
