COUNTY COURT, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Civil Procedure (Amendment No. 2) Rules 2026

Made - - - - 9th July 2026
Laid before Parliament 15th July 2026
Coming into force in accordance with rules 1 and 2

The Civil Procedure Rule Committee, having power under section 19(3) of the Senior Courts Act 1981⁽¹⁾ and section 2 of the Civil Procedure Act 1997⁽²⁾ to make rules under section 1 of and Schedule 1 to that 1997 Act, and after fulfilling the requirements of section 2(6) of that Act, makes the following Rules.

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These Rules may be cited as the Civil Procedure (Amendment No. 2) Rules 2026.

(2) In this rule and rule 2, “BPD changes” means the amendments made by rules 4, 7, 9, 11(2), 12 to 18, 20 to 22, 24, 27 and 28 of and Schedule 1 to these Rules to the following Parts and rules: Parts 2, 19, 30, rule 52.4, Parts 53, 57, 57A, 58, 59, 60, 61, 63, 63A, 64, 67 and 83 and to RSC Order 115.

(3) These rules come into force on 1st October 2026, except as provided by paragraphs (4) and (5).

(4) This rule and rule 3 in so far as they relate to the BPD changes, rule 2 and the BPD changes themselves, come into force on the same date, and immediately after, the Senior Courts (Transfer, Amendment and Consequential Provision) Order 2026⁽³⁾ comes into force.

(5) Rule 23 of and Schedule 2 to these Rules come into force on 26th October 2026.

(6) In these Rules—

(1) 1981 c. 54.

(2) 1997 c. 12. Section 2(1) was substituted by the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 (c. 4), section 15 and Schedule 4, Part 1. Section 1(3) was substituted by section 82(1) of the Courts Act 2003 (c. 39) and further amended by the Constitutional Reform Act 2005, sections 15 and 146 and Schedule 4, Part 1, paragraphs 261 and 262 and Schedule 18. Section 1(1) was amended by the Crime and Courts Act 2013 (c. 22), section 17(5) and Schedule 9, Part 3, paragraph 67(a) and by section 174 of the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (c. 12). Schedule 1 to the 1997 Act was amended by the Courts and Tribunals (Judiciary and Functions of Staff) Act 2018 (c. 33), section 3, Schedule, Part 1, paragraph 19, the Crime and Courts Act 2013, section 17(5), Schedule 9, Part 3, paragraph 67(b).

(3) S.I. 2026/723.

- (a) a reference to a Part or a rule by number alone means the Part or rule so numbered in the Civil Procedure Rules 1998(4); and
- (b) a reference to “Schedule 1” alone means Schedule 1 to those Rules, and a reference to an Order by number and prefixed by “RSC” means the RSC Order so numbered in that Schedule.

- (b) the notice of the first hearing, must be served by the claimant on the defendant personally.

(2) An application made on notice may be listed for hearing before the expiry of the time for the defendant to file an acknowledgment of service under rule 8.3, and in such a case—

(8) 2014 c. 12. Section 1 of the Crime and Policing Act 2026 (c. 20) amends the 2014 Act to introduce Part A1 into that Act.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (a) the claimant must, as soon as is practicable in accordance with paragraph (1) (and in any event not less than 2 days before the hearing), serve the claim form, witness statement, draft order and notice of the first hearing on the defendant; and
- (b) the defendant may take part in the hearing whether or not the defendant has filed an acknowledgment of service.

Application for a respect order without notice

65.53.—(1) If the application is made without notice—

- (a) the witness statement in support of the application must state the reasons why notice has not been given;
- (b) the following rules do not apply—
 - (i) 8.3;
 - (ii) 8.4;
 - (iii) 8.5(2) to (6);
 - (iv) 8.6(1);
 - (v) 8.7;
 - (vi) 8.8; and
- (c) Part 20 does not apply.

(2) If the application is made without notice, once the without notice aspect of the application has been determined, the claim form must be served by the claimant on the defendant personally, together with a copy of the witness statement, any draft order, any order made and any notice of the first hearing that the defendant may attend.

Service of respect orders - general

65.54. Where a respect order or interim respect order has been granted, the claimant must, as soon as practicable—

- (a) serve a copy of the respect order or interim respect order on the defendant personally; and
- (b) after service of the respect order or interim respect order on the defendant, deliver to the police station serving the area where the defendant resides or any police station that the court may direct, and to any supervisor appointed under section D1(1) of the 2014 Act in relation to a requirement in that respect order or interim respect order—
 - (i) a copy of the respect order or interim respect order; and
 - (ii) a certificate of service confirming that the defendant has been served with the respect order or interim respect order as appropriate.

Application to vary or discharge a respect order or interim respect order

65.55.—(1) An application to vary or discharge a respect order or interim respect order under section G1 of Part A1 of the 2014 Act must be made in accordance with Part 23.

(2) Where an order is made varying or discharging any aspect of the respect order or interim respect order (“the variation or discharge order”), the claimant must—

- (a) immediately inform the defendant and the police station and any supervisor to which a copy of the respect order or interim respect order and certificate of service were delivered under rule 65.54(b) that the variation or discharge order has been made; and

- (b) as soon as practicable—
 - (i) serve on the defendant personally a copy of the variation or discharge order; and
 - (ii) after service of the variation or discharge order on the defendant, deliver a copy of the variation or discharge order to any police station and any supervisor informed of that order under sub-paragraph (a), together with a certificate of service confirming that the defendant has been served with a copy of that order.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules amend the Civil Procedure Rules (S.I. 1998/3132)—

—by amending the following Parts of the Rules to reflect the transfer of the Admiralty Court and the Commercial Court from the King’s Bench Division of the High Court to the Chancery Division, the renaming of the Chancery Division as the Business and Property Division and the change of title of the Chancellor of the High Court to the President of the Business and Property Division, by an Order in Council made under section 7(1) and (3) of the Senior Courts Act 1981, and to reflect the transfer of the Circuit Commercial Courts and the Technology and Construction Court of the High Court to the BPD:

- Part 2 (application and interpretation of the Rules);
- Part 19 (parties and group litigation);
- Part 30 (transfer);
- Part 52, rule 52.4 (appeals);
- Part 53 (media and communications claims);
- Part 57 (probate, inheritance, presumption of death and guardianship of missing persons);
- Part 57A (business and property courts);
- Part 58 (commercial court);
- Part 59 (circuit commercial courts);
- Part 60 (technology and construction court claims) (the opportunity has also been taken to add a missing entry into the table of contents);
- Part 61 (admiralty claims);
- Part 63 (intellectual property claims);
- Part 63A (financial list);
- Part 64 (estates, trusts and charities);
- Part 67 (proceedings relating to solicitors);
- Part 83 (writs and warrants - general provisions);
- RSC Order 115 (confiscation and forfeiture in connection with criminal proceedings);

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- by amending rule 3.16 (costs management conferences) to omit paragraph (2), which currently provides that where practicable costs management conferences should be conducted by telephone or in writing;
- by amending rule 8.8(2) (procedure where defendant objects to use of the Part 8 procedure) to update a cross-reference to rule 8.1;
- by amending rule 23.8 (applications which may be decided without a hearing) to make a clarification amendment;
- by amending Part 31 (disclosure and inspection of documents) to use gender neutral language, and also by amending the opening wording to rule 31.10(6) (procedure for standard disclosure) to clarify the process for signing disclosure statements when a person lacks capacity and is represented by a litigation friend;
- by amending Part 62 (arbitration claims) to insert a new rule 62.10A in relation to the time limit and procedure for seeking leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal against a decision refusing leave to appeal against an arbitration award under section 69 of the Arbitration Act 1996, prompted by the judgment in RRY v NKX [2025] EWHC 41 (Comm), and to make consequential amendments to rules 52.3 (permission to appeal) and 52.12 (Appellant’s notice);
- by amending Part 65 (proceedings relating to anti-social behaviour and harassment) to insert a new Section IX in relation to respect orders that are to be made under Part A1 of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (c. 12). Section 1 of the Crime and Policing Act 2026 (c. 20) inserts Part A1 into the 2014 Act;
- by amending Part 75 (traffic enforcement) to align terminology with the Taking Control of Goods Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/1894); to provide that the order drawn up by a charging authority following registration by the Traffic Enforcement Centre (TEC) of an unpaid penalty charge is referred to as an “order for recovery”; to provide that a request for review of a decision of a court officer on an application for an extension of time to file a witness statement or statutory declaration is to be determined without a hearing unless the court otherwise directs; to provide that a warrant of control remains valid where the address of the respondent changes after issue, if a new notice of enforcement is given; to provide that an application under rule 84.5 to extend the period in which to take control of goods is to be made to the TEC; and to replace the existing provisions governing applications for further enforcement with provision requiring such applications to be sent in the first instance to the TEC;
- by amending the table of contents for Part 77 (provisions in support of criminal justice) so that the entry for rule 77.3 correctly reflects the heading of that rule.
