EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10), the Civil Legal Aid (Merits Criteria) Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/104) and the Civil Legal Aid (Financial Resources and Payment for Services) Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/480).

Article 2 brings within scope of legal aid under Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act services in relation to respect orders and youth and housing injunctions which replace existing civil injunctions, in the Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 (c. 12).

Article 3 amends the Civil Legal Aid (Merits Criteria) Regulations 2013 in relation to forms of legal service which are not appropriate for two national security measures. It inserts regulation 22A to provide a comprehensive statement that help at court and investigative representation are not appropriate services for proceedings in relation to a Terrorism Prevention and Investigation Measure (TPIM) Notice, resolving the ambiguity in the previous provision which referred only to those matters described in paragraph 45 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to LASPO. It further amends regulation 22 to specify that help at court and investigative representation are not appropriate legal aid services for foreign power threat activity prevention and investigation measures, aligning with the provision for TPIMs.

Article 4 amends regulation 5 of the Civil Legal Aid (Financial Resources and Payment for Services) Regulations 2013 to clarify that it is only legal help that is available without a means test in relation to an individual who is the subject of a TPIM Notice. It further provides that non-means-tested legal help is available for an individual who is subject to a foreign power threat activity prevention and investigation measures notice or in relation to whom such a notice is contemplated.
