12.—(1) Before deciding whether to give permission under section 21\(1\)\(e\)\(ii\) of the CCM (permission to bring complaint after end of limitation period) for a complaint of misconduct (but not serious misconduct) to proceed, the lead assessor must—

(2) Where there is more than one lead assessor on the panel of assessors, the question of which of them to make the referral to under section 20\(1\)\(a\) of the CCM is to be determined by the responsible bishop or, where the complaint is against an archbishop, the President of Tribunals, having taken into account the availability of each of the lead assessors.

(3) The information which the responsible bishop or President of Tribunals must give for the purposes of section 20\(9\) of the CCM when referring a complaint is a factual summary of any previous complaint made against the respondent under the CDM, the EJM or the CCM and the outcome of that complaint.

Allocation of complaint

14.—(1) A lead assessor, having had a complaint referred under section 20 of the CCM, must decide what action to take under section 21\(1\) of the CCM; and the decision must be made before the end of 14 days beginning with the day after the lead assessor receives the referral.

(9) Where the lead assessor acts under paragraph \(8\), the provisions of this rule are to be read accordingly.

(10) Where a complaint includes more than one allegation and the lead assessor thinks that the allegations, if each made in a separate complaint, would be allocated differently under section 21\(1\) of the CCM, the lead assessor must allocate the complaint—

- (a) if the allegations include an allegation which the lead assessor thinks would be allocated as serious misconduct, as a complaint of serious misconduct, or
- (b) if the allegations do not include an allegation of the kind referred to in sub-paragraph (a), as a complaint of misconduct (but not serious misconduct).

 - (ii) include a response to each of those parts.
- (4) The response must be signed and dated by the respondent and must be verified by a statement of truth made by the respondent.
- (5) If the respondent fails to provide a response in the period provided for by paragraph \(2\), the Investigation and Tribunals Team must proceed to deal with the complaint despite that failure.

Findings on the basis of admissions

34. If a response under rule 33 includes an admission, the tribunal or court may make a finding of misconduct (either serious misconduct or other misconduct), or a finding of fact, on the basis of the admission (without considering any further evidence).

Partial admissions

35.—(1) This rule applies if the respondent makes a partial admission to the misconduct alleged in the complaint (whether in a response under rule 33 or subsequently in the proceedings).

(2) The Investigation and Tribunals Team may make an application to the Chair of the tribunal or court to discontinue proceedings in respect of the complaint (including the parts of the complaint in respect of which no admission is made).

(3) Before making an application under paragraph \(2\), the Investigation and Tribunals Team must consult the complainant.

(4) An application under paragraph \(2\) must be made in accordance with rule 105.

(2) The “representation period”, in relation to a report, is the period of 14 days beginning with the day after the report is given to the party under section 27\(4\) of the CCM.

(3) The decision of the President of Tribunals on what to do under section 27\(5\) of the CCM must be made before the end of 28 days beginning with the day after the representation period ends.

(4) The President of Tribunals must give a copy of the written record of the decision on what to do under section 27\(5\) of the CCM to—

- (a) each party to the complaint,
- (b) the responsible bishop in relation to the complaint (unless the complaint is against an archbishop), and
- (c) the Investigation and Tribunals Team.

(5) Where the President of Tribunals makes the determination under section 27\(9\) of the CCM (referral to lead assessor of complaint of misconduct but not serious misconduct), that determination counts as the President’s decision for the purposes of section 27\(5\) of the CCM.

Order for production of documents by person not party to complaint

39.—(1) This rule applies where a complaint is allocated as one of serious misconduct under section 21\(1\)\(c\), 23\(4\)\(c\) or 27\(4\)\(c\) of the CCM.

(2) The Investigation and Tribunals Team or the respondent may apply for an order for production of documents by a person who is not a party to the complaint.

(3) But the respondent may not apply for an order for the production of documents by the Investigation and Tribunals Team.

(4) The application may be made at any time after the complaint to which it relates has been made.

(5) The application must be made —

- (a) if the complaint has been referred to a bishop’s disciplinary tribunal or the Vicar-General’s court under section 27\(5\) of the CCM, to the Chair of the tribunal or court, and
- (b) in any other case, to the President of Tribunals.

(6) The application—

- (a) must be made in accordance with rule 105, and
- (b) may be made without notice being given to any person (but, where the application is made under paragraph \(5\)\(b\), the President may direct under rule 4 that written notice of the application must be given to specified persons).

(7) The President or Chair may make an order on the application only if satisfied that the production of documents specified or described in the application is relevant and necessary for dealing fairly with the complaint.

(8) The order must specify or describe the documents or the classes of document which the person to whom the order is directed must produce.

(9) The order must state that—

- (a) the person to whom the order is directed must obey the order,
- (b) failure to do so may be a contempt, and
- (c) if the order is not obeyed, the person to whom it is directed may be liable to imprisonment or a fine or both.

(10) Where an order under this rule is made without reasonable notice of the application having been given to the person to whom the order is directed, that person may apply to the President or Chair for discharge or variation of the order within the period specified in the order.

(11) The period specified in the order under paragraph \(10\) must be at least 14 days beginning with the day after the order is made.

Failure to comply with an order under rule 39

40.—(1) If the person to whom an order under rule 39 is directed fails to comply with the order without reasonable excuse and would, as a result, be in contempt of the President if the President had power to commit for contempt, the President may send the High Court a signed certificate stating the failure to comply.

(2) The High Court may—

- (a) on receiving a certificate under paragraph \(1\), inquire into the alleged failure to comply, and
- (b) after hearing any witness for or against the person to whom the order is directed and any statement in defence, exercise the same jurisdiction and powers as if the person were guilty of contempt of the High Court.

(3) If the complaint to which the order relates has been referred to a tribunal or court under section 27\(5\) of the CCM, paragraphs \(1\) and \(2\) apply as if the references to the President of Tribunals were a reference to the tribunal or court (in so far as section 62 of the CCM would not otherwise apply to the failure to comply).

Part 9

Addition of safeguarding professional as party to complaint

41.—(1) On an application under section 28\(1\)\(b\) of the CCM, the President of Tribunals may, if satisfied that an issue relating to the safeguarding of a child or vulnerable adult arises, order that the relevant safeguarding professional is to become a party to the complaint.

Duty of registrar to consult Chair

45. Before taking a step in relation to proceedings on a complaint of serious misconduct, the registrar of tribunals must consult the Chair; and the Chair may take the step instead of the registrar.

Power of Chair to act on own initiative

46.—(1) The Chair may, except where a provision of these Rules or another enactment provides otherwise, exercise powers under these Rules on the Chair’s own initiative (as well as on an application).

- (2) Where the Chair proposes to make an order on the Chair’s own initiative, the Chair—

Part 11

DIRECTIONS

Giving directions

- 47.—(1) The Chair of the tribunal or court to which a complaint of serious misconduct is referred may, in any proceedings on the complaint, give directions for the conduct of the proceedings.
- (2) When determining whether to give directions and, if so, which directions to give, the Chair must seek to give effect to the overriding objective.
- (3) Directions may be given—
 - (a) orally or in writing;
 - (b) with or without a hearing.
- (4) The registrar of tribunals may give directions to the extent authorised by these Rules.
- (5) If the Chair holds a hearing for the purpose of giving directions, it is the duty of the parties to attend or take part in the hearing, either in person or by legal representatives.
- (6) The Chair may request the attendance of another person at the hearing.

Matters on which directions may be given

Part 12

EVIDENCE

Witness statements for use at hearing

49.—(1) This rule applies to a witness statement intended for use in proceedings before the tribunal or court to which a complaint of serious misconduct has been referred.

(2) The witness statement must be signed by the person making it and may not include evidence which the person would not be allowed to give orally.

(3) The witness statement must indicate—

- (a) which matters come from the witness’s own knowledge and which are matters of information or belief, and
- (b) in the case of a matter of information or belief, the source of that information or belief.

(4) The witness statement must include at the end a declaration of truth signed and dated by the witness and in the following form—

“I believe that the contents of this witness statement are true.”

(5) A party wishing to rely on the witness statement in a hearing on the complaint must call the witness to give oral evidence at the hearing unless—

- (a) the parties agree that the witness statement may be put in evidence,
- (b) the witness has died or is too ill to attend, or
- (c) the registrar of tribunals or the Chair of the tribunal or court directs otherwise.

(6) Where the witness is called to give oral evidence, the witness statement of that witness stands as the witness’s evidence in chief unless the Chair directs otherwise.

(7) The witness, when giving oral evidence, may with the permission of the Chair—

- (a) amplify the witness statement;
- (b) give evidence on a matter which has arisen since the witness statement was made.

(8) If a party exchanges the witness statement with another party but does not call the witness to give oral evidence at the hearing or put the statement in evidence without calling the witness, the other party may put the witness statement in evidence without calling the witness to give oral evidence.

Use of witness statements for other purposes

50.—(1) A witness statement may be used only for the purposes of the complaint in the proceedings in which it is served.

- (2) But paragraph \(1\) does not apply if or to the extent that—
- (a) the witness gives consent in writing to the use of the statement for specified purposes,
 - (b) the Chair of the tribunal or court gives permission for the use of the statement for specified purposes, or
 - (c) the witness statement has been put in evidence at a hearing held in public.

Expert reports

51.—(1) No party to a complaint of serious misconduct may call an expert or put in evidence an expert report without the permission of the Chair of the tribunal or court dealing with the complaint.

(2) Expert evidence must be given in the form of a single written report by experts acting jointly on the instructions of the parties acting jointly unless the Chair, having had due regard to the overriding objective, considers that it would be in the interests of justice for a separate written report to be prepared in relation to either or each party by an expert acting on the instructions of that party.

(3) Where the Chair gives permission to put in evidence an expert report, the Chair must direct that the report satisfies each of the following requirements—

- (a) it must contain a statement that each expert understands the duty which that expert has to the tribunal or court and has complied with that duty;
- (b) it must be addressed to the tribunal or court (and not to the parties by whom the experts are instructed);
- (c) it must specify each expert’s qualifications;
- (d) it must give details of the material on which the experts have relied in making the report;
- (e) it must contain a statement of the substance of the facts and instructions which are material to the opinions given in the report or on which those opinions are based;
- (f) it must specify those of the facts stated in the report which are within the experts’ own knowledge and those which are not;
- (g) it must specify who carried out any examination, measurement, test or experiment which the experts have used for the report, specify that person’s qualifications and indicate whether the examination, measurement, test or experiment was carried out under the experts’ supervision;
- (h) if there is a range of opinions on matters in the report, it must summarise those opinions and give reasons for each expert’s own opinion;
- (i) it must summarise the conclusions reached;
- (j) if the experts are unable to give an opinion without qualification, it must specify that qualification.

(4) The expert report must be signed and dated by each expert and verified by a statement of truth in the following form—

“I confirm that I have specified those of the facts stated in this report which are within my own knowledge and those which are not. Those within my own knowledge I confirm to be true. The opinions I have expressed represent my own true and complete expert opinion on the matters to which they refer.”

(5) Where a separate written report is prepared in relation to a party by an expert acting on the instructions of that party, the references in paragraphs \(3\) and \(4\) to the experts or parties are to be read as references to the expert or party concerned.

Exclusion of evidence

52.—(1) The Chair of the tribunal or court dealing with a complaint of serious misconduct may, in the case of evidence which would otherwise be admissible, give directions to exclude the evidence on the grounds that it is irrelevant or unnecessary.

(2) The Chair of the tribunal or court may give directions to exclude evidence which should, in the opinion of the Chair, be excluded in the interests of justice.

Oral evidence

53. Oral evidence must be given on oath or affirmation.

Part 13

HEARINGS: GENERAL PROVISION

- (c) conduct the hearing in the manner it considers most appropriate, having due regard to the issues before it.

(2) The registrar of tribunals must give directions for the time, date and place of each session of the hearing (including, in a case where the hearing is to any extent to be held in a manner referred to in paragraph \(1\)\(b\), instructions on how to join and participate in the hearing).

(3) The hearing in its entirety must be recorded by audio, audio-visual or other electronic means.

Cross-examination of witnesses in person

55.—(1) A respondent may not cross-examine a witness in person where the alleged misconduct is—

- (a) conduct of a sexual nature towards the witness,
- (b) violent, controlling, coercive or threatening conduct towards the witness, or
- (c) conduct towards the witness which took place when the witness was a child.

(2) A respondent may not cross-examine a witness in person where it appears to the tribunal or court—

- (a) that the quality of evidence given by the witness would be likely to be diminished if the cross-examination were conducted by the respondent in person and would be likely to be improved if a direction under this rule were to be given, and
- (b) that it would not be contrary to the interests of justice to give such a direction.

(3) The Investigation and Tribunals Team may apply to the Chair of the tribunal or court for a direction that paragraph \(2\) applies in relation to the witness specified in the application.

(4) An application under paragraph \(3\) must be made in accordance with rule 105.

 - (b) the nature of the questions likely to be asked, in light of the issues in the proceedings,
 - (c) whether there has been any relationship between the witness and the respondent and, if so, the nature of that relationship, and
 - (d) any other relevant circumstances.
- (7) Where the Chair is satisfied that paragraph \(1\) or \(2\) applies in relation to a witness, the Chair must—
 - (a) give a direction to that effect,
 - (b) invite the respondent to arrange for a legal representative to act for the purpose of cross-examining the witness, and
 - (c) direct the respondent to notify the registrar of tribunals by the end of the period specified in the direction whether a legal representative is to act for that purpose.
- (8) If, by the end of the period specified under paragraph \(7\)\(c\), the respondent has not given the notification to the registrar of tribunals—
 - (a) the Chair must consider whether it is in the interests of justice for the witness to be cross-examined, and
 - (b) if the Chair considers that it is, the tribunal or court must appoint a legal representative to cross-examine the witness.
- (9) A person appointed under paragraph \(8\)\(b\) is appointed to act in the interests of the respondent but is not responsible to the respondent.
- (10) The tribunal or court must meet the costs that—
 - (a) are incurred in respect of an appointment under paragraph \(8\)\(b\), and
 - (b) do not exceed the amount that the Chair determines is reasonable in the circumstances.

Amendments to allegations

56.—(1) At any time before the hearing begins, the registrar of tribunals may, on an application made in writing by the complainant, direct that an allegation of misconduct in the complaint is to be amended.

(2) At any time after the hearing begins (but before the complaint is determined), the Chair of the tribunal or court may, on an application made orally by the complainant, direct that an allegation of misconduct in the complaint is to be amended.

(3) The registrar of tribunals or the Chair may only give a direction under this rule if satisfied that the amendment—

- (a) is necessary for the just disposal of the proceedings in accordance with the overriding objective,
- (b) is appropriate in the circumstances of the case, and
- (c) can be made without injustice to the complainant or the respondent.

Tribunal or court sitting in private

57.—(1) The circumstances in which the tribunal or court may sit in private for the purposes of section 31\(3\)\(b\) of the CCM are those in which it is satisfied that doing so is necessary—

- (a) to protect the privacy of a child or protected party giving evidence in person, or
- (b) to prevent prejudice to the proceedings.

(2) The following persons (and no others) may attend a hearing of the tribunal or court held in private—

- (a) the complainant and the respondent,
- (b) where the complainant or respondent is a litigation friend appointed under section 17 of the CCM, the protected party (which has the meaning given in rule 5),

Power to exclude from hearing

60. The tribunal or court may exclude a person from the hearing if, in the opinion of the tribunal or court, the person—

- (a) has disrupted the hearing or threatens to disrupt the hearing, or
- (b) has otherwise interfered with the administration of justice.

Special measures

61.—(1) This rule applies if the Chair of the tribunal or court decides that a party's ability to participate, or a witness's ability to give evidence, in the proceedings is being, or is likely to be, diminished on any of the following grounds—

- (a) age, immaturity or lack of understanding;

- 62.—(1) The tribunal or court may order that the name and other identifying details of a person who is involved, or referred to, in the proceedings must not be published or otherwise made public.
- (2) The tribunal or court may make an order under paragraph \(1\) only if satisfied that the order—

 - (c) is otherwise in the interests of the administration of justice.
- (3) An order under paragraph \(1\) may be of a defined or indefinite duration (and may, accordingly, have effect beyond the conclusion of the proceedings).

Rule 105(8)

This application must be given to the person who is specified in the provision of the CCM or the Rules to whom the application may be made.

Rule 106

Except where it is provided that an application must or may be made without notice, a copy must be given to the other parties at the same time as it is given to the person referred to in rule 105(8).

Schedule 2

Rule 114

Royal Peculiars

Jurisdiction

1.—(1) The CCM does not apply to an allegation of misconduct against a clerk in Holy Orders who holds office in a Royal Peculiar unless and until the relevant assessor decides, in accordance with the statutes of the Royal Peculiar, that the alleged misconduct is likely to call into question the clerk's fitness to exercise ministry.

(2) If the relevant assessor makes the decision referred to in sub-paragraph (1), the allegation of misconduct is to be treated for the purposes of the CCM and these Rules as having been made in the form of a complaint and allocated as a complaint of serious misconduct; and a reference in this Schedule to a complaint under this Schedule is to be read accordingly.

(3) The CCM and these Rules have effect accordingly; and for that purpose—

- (a) a reference to the responsible bishop is (subject to paragraph 7(1)) to be read as a reference to the person to whom an allegation of misconduct is required to be made under the statutes of the Royal Peculiar concerned,
- (b) a reference to the Vicar-General's court or a bishop's disciplinary tribunal is to be read as a reference to a disciplinary tribunal under paragraph 3,
- (c) a reference to the relevant officer is to be read as a reference to the President of Tribunals,
- (d) a reference to the Code of Practice is to be read as a reference to guidance prepared by the relevant assessor about the operation of the system for dealing with allegations of misconduct against clerks in Holy Orders who hold office in the Royal Peculiar, and
- (e) the other modifications set out in this Schedule are to apply.

(4) In this Schedule, "the relevant assessor", in relation to a Royal Peculiar, means the person who, under the Royal Peculiar's statutes, has responsibility for deciding how to deal with allegations of misconduct against clerks in Holy Orders who hold office in the Royal Peculiar.

(5) A reference in this Schedule to the statutes of a Royal Peculiar also includes a reference to—

- (a) any other instrument relating to the governance of the Royal Peculiar, and
- (b) any guidance prepared by the relevant assessor about the operation of the system for dealing with allegations of misconduct against clerks in Holy Orders who hold office in the Royal Peculiar.

Investigation

2. In section 27 of the CCM (complaint of serious misconduct), subsection (9) has effect as if for paragraphs (a) and (b) there were substituted the following—

- “(a) the President must refer the complaint to the relevant assessor, and
- (b) the allegations of misconduct in the complaint are to be dealt with under the statutes of the Royal Peculiar concerned.”

Disciplinary tribunal

3.—(1) A disciplinary tribunal to which a complaint is referred under section 27(5) of the CCM consists of three persons—

- (a) one of whom serves as the Chair (see sub-paragraph (2)),

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (b) one of whom is a clerk in Holy Orders appointed by the President of Tribunals from the Royal Peculiars panel (see paragraph 4), and
- (c) one of whom is a lay person appointed by the President of Tribunals from that panel.
- (2) The Chair of the disciplinary tribunal is a person appointed by the President of Tribunals who—
 - (a) satisfies the judicial-appointment eligibility condition on a 7-year basis (see section 10\(2\)\(d\) and \(6\) of the CCM), or
 - (b) holds or has held high judicial office or the office of circuit judge.
- (3) The President of Tribunals may not make an appointment under sub-paragraph \(1\)\(b\) or \(c\) of a person who was appointed to the Royal Peculiars panel by the dean of the Royal Peculiar in which the person who is subject to complaint holds office.
- (4) The Chair of the disciplinary tribunal must give directions for how the complaint is to proceed.

Royal Peculiars panel

- 4.—(1) All the persons who hold office as the dean of a Royal Peculiar must jointly maintain a list, known as “the Royal Peculiars panel”, of persons suitable for appointment as a member of a disciplinary tribunal under paragraph 3.
- (2) The Royal Peculiars panel consists of the persons nominated under sub-paragraph \(3\).
- (3) The dean of each Royal Peculiar must nominate for inclusion on the Royal Peculiars panel—
 - (a) two clerks in Holy Orders, and
 - (b) two lay persons, each of whom is an actual communicant.

Suspension

5. Section 35 of the CCM (restriction order) does not apply to a clerk in Holy Orders subject to a complaint under this Schedule; and sections 34 and 36 of the CCM (suspension) are to be read as if references to section 35 were omitted.

Penalties

6. Sections 37 to 40 of the CCM (penalties etc.) apply to a finding or admission of a complaint under this Schedule that a clerk in Holy Orders has committed misconduct likely to call into question the clerk’s fitness to exercise ministry as they apply to a finding or admission of serious misconduct.

Deposition from Holy Orders

- 7.—(1) Section 41 of the CCM (deposition of priest or deacon) has effect as if the references to the responsible bishop were references to the bishop of the diocese in which the Royal Peculiar is treated by section 68\(6\) of the CCM as situated.
- (2) Part 16 of these Rules applies to a complaint under this Schedule with such modifications as are necessary or appropriate in consequence of this paragraph.

Conviction for offence etc: power to impose penalty etc

8. In the application of section 46 of the CCM (conviction for offence etc) to a clerk in Holy Orders who holds office in a Royal Peculiar, the power under that section is exercisable by the President of Tribunals.

Appeal and review

9.—(1) Section 50 of the CCM (review by President of Tribunals on complaint) applies to a complaint under this Schedule; and for that purpose—

- (a) subsection (1) applies as if it included a reference to a decision taken by the relevant assessor that the alleged misconduct is not likely to call into question the fitness of the clerk in Holy Orders to exercise ministry, and
- (b) subsection (2) applies as if it included a reference to a dismissal by the relevant assessor of the alleged misconduct on the grounds that it is vexatious or totally without merit.

(2) Section 51 of the CCM (review by President of Tribunals of penalty on conviction etc) applies to a clerk in Holy Orders on whom a penalty has been imposed under section 46 of the CCM (as modified by paragraph 8) as if the clerk were an archbishop on whom a penalty had been imposed under that section.

(3) Section 52\(1\) to \(4\) of the CCM (appeal etc to court) applies to a complaint under this Schedule.

(4) Section 53 of the CCM (permission to appeal) applies to an appeal or application for review under section 52 of the CCM (as it is applied by sub-paragraph (3)); and for that purpose, subsections \(1\)\(a\) and \(3\) are to be ignored.

(5) Part 20 of these Rules applies to a complaint under this Schedule with such modifications as are necessary or appropriate in consequence of this paragraph and paragraph 10.

Composition of appeal panel

10.—(1) An appeal or application for review under the CCM as modified by paragraph 9 of this Schedule must be made to a panel that consists of—

- (a) the Dean of the Arches and Auditor,
- (b) one clerk in Holy Orders appointed by the President of Tribunals from the Royal Peculiars panel, and
- (c) one lay person appointed by the President of Tribunals from that panel.

(2) The President of Tribunals may not make an appointment under sub-paragraph \(1\)\(b\) or \(c\) of a person who was appointed to the Royal Peculiars panel by the dean of the Royal Peculiar in which the person who is subject to the complaint holds office.
