EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Immigration (Certificate of Entitlement to Right of Abode in the United Kingdom) Regulations 2006 (“the 2006 Regulations”) (S.I. 2006/3145) principally to make necessary changes to enable the issuing and revoking of digital certificates of entitlement.

Regulation 4 substitutes a new regulation 3 in the 2006 Regulations to clarify the authority to which an application for a Certificate of Entitlement must be submitted, which is to the Secretary of State for the Home Department, except if the applicant is in the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man and then an application can alternatively be made to the Lieutenant-General.

Regulations 6 to 9 make amendments to the 2006 Regulations to enable the issuing of digital certificates of entitlement. These Regulations also set out the obligations on certificate holders to update information connected to these certificates and provide a power to revoke the certificate if such information is not kept up to date.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
